Founded over 30 years ago amid the AIDS crisis, Stonewall Community Foundation is an iconic public grantmaking institution by and for the LGBTQ community. Now in our fourth decade of service to the community, we have built a prolific legacy of fueling progress for LGBTQ people across the country. This year's Vision Awards will serve as an opportunity to reflect on our history of impact, while looking ahead to the future of our Movement. In this political moment, as LGBTQ lives and liberties are under unprecedented attack, Stonewall is bringing community together to strengthen our collective efforts while honoring LGBTQ visionaries at the forefront of the Movement.

Vision draws LGBTQ and allied leaders in business, arts, fashion, entertainment, media, and the nonprofit sector. Stonewall's reach is broader than ever, with outlets like NBC, HuffPost, and Time covering the Vision Awards. Social media from the event consistently reaches up to 12 million users.
